VOLUMNE 111, NUMBER 8 THE GOLD CENTER NEVADA CITY, NEVADA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA. THE COUNTY SEAT PAPER JANUARY 7, 1929

GOVERNOR C. C. ISSUES BIENNIAL WORD, OPENING

(Special Nugget Service)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 7—Governor C. C. Young in his binennial message delivered to the Senate and Assembly emphasized some vital points in the handling of the state government under his regime. They are of such import that his words as given today are here reprinted in part:

"In this mesage I shall try to put into words that which has proven to be the spirit of the present day in California government. In this there is no thought of glorifying the policies of any ndivdual or group, but rather the thought is to interpret the progresive spirit of our people in terms of the activities of government.

"Briefly, the present period of our governmental history is marked by long time planning of public policies. We can no longer be satisfied to legislate and govern for the current biennium alone. Failure to estimate the development which will take place in our state during the next generation, and provide for it by legislation in advance, means that the government will soon be out of step with the progress of industry and labor and commerce. The progressive achievements of the past twenty years will not be sufficient for the changing needs of the twenty years ahead.

"It is happily our privilege, yours and mine, to the agents of the people during this period, when they are surveying the needs for onstructive progress in the years to come and prenaring to enter upon the approaching new cycle of progressive development. It is ours to profit by the lesosns of the past, to take stock of the present, and to plan for a future befitting the manifest ultimate destiny of our state.

"To provide the opportunity for the scanning of future needs, careful foundations have been laid for the past two years. The surplus in the general fund has been built up nearly $10.000.000 and according to the State Controller will amount to almost $30.000.000 at the end of the present biennium.

"Our highway program has been intelligently planned for years to come. Its construction in an orderly way is already paying great dividends. The Department of Finance informs me that the long time program, financed on the pay-as-you-go method produces a saving of $24,-000.000 on the expenditures of the next biennium alone, compared with the old bond issue method.

"Our state constitution is described by students of government as one of the worst in form in the Union—because of its total lack of comprehensive planning, and the necesity of constant changes based on immediate expediency. If we are to treat fairly the California of tomorrow we must cease tampering wth one section after another, and seriously study our constitution as a whole in the light of the new conditions that exist and are facing us. In line with this policy I shall ask your consideration for a measure providing for a far sighted study of our need for constitutional revision.

"In this connection I would direct your attention to the ned for a plan of county government more responsive to the people than is provided by the general provisions of the state constitution. It is not conducive to the best in government that the legislature should determine salaries of county officers and their deputies and even the number of deputies that a county office shall have. In practice this results in the legislative delegation from each county deciding these matters. While it is now possible for each county to frame and adopt a county charter, covering these and other matters, it is seldom done. Local home rule in county affairs should be more easily obtainable. It is therefore my intention to recommend to you a plan for the careful study of the modernizing of our genral system of county government, to the end that people of each county may enjoy a large measure of local control over local government, and be able more readily to bring their respective counties into line with the changing needs of each."

(Further study of the Governor's mesage will be made in forthcoming issues of The Nugget. —Editor.)

LILY NETZ UNDESRGOES AN OPERATION APPENDICITIS

MINING LOCATIONS ARE PLACED COUNTY RECORD

The following mining location was recorded the past week with County Recorder Sam J. Clark:—

Pendelton quartz lode in the Blue Tent Mining District by Alice M. Dennison.

JOINT INSTALLATION CEREMONIES WEDNESDAY

The joint installation ceremonies of Nevada and Madison Lodges and Nevada and Grass Valley Chapters of the Roal Arch are expected to be held on Wednesday evening, January 16th, according to present indications. The officers of the two Chapters will be installed jointly followed by the joint installing of the Blue Lodge officers.

ELECTION CONTEST IS DISMISSED BY DAVIES

After recounting the ballots in the Indian Flat and Nevada City No. 1 precincts Thursday and finding an insufficient number on which to continue the proceedings, Frank Davies through his attorney, T. L. Chamberlain of Auburn, moved to dismiss the proceedings and paid the costs of defendants witness and court fees.

The two ballots in Indian Flat precinct were counted as for Davies after examination and one was protested as were several in the Nevada City precinct, but not a sufficient number were found as to invalidate the election. The majority for R. A. Eddy now officially stands at 14 votes in the district.

The protested action of the election board in Nevada City in conducting the election as alleged in the complaint was not considered in the hearing.

This sets at rest any rumors which may have been floating about with regard to the counting of the votes and clears the election board in that particular and shows them to have conducted the count in a fair and impartial manner toward both candidates.

F. T. Nilon appeared as attorney for Mr. Eddy.

ALEX RAMSEY BUYS THE BRET HARTE CIGAR STORE

N. Alex Ramsey purchased the interest of W. O. Williams in the Bret Harte Cigar Store the past week and is now the sole owner. Williams has not announced his future plans. Alex has run a popular place with the smoking fraternity and his emporium is well partonized.

STATE LEGISLATURE IS OPEN TODAY

The biennial session of the state legislature is to open in the state capitol at Sacramento today. This county sees two new legislators in the persons of J. L. Seawell in the assembly and B. A. Cassidy as senator.

Our new assemblyman has been assiduous in consulting his mining constitutents as to what they want in the way of legislation and has made numerous trips up here since election. He has a proposed bill to amend the ore buyer's act which should make it possible for the small dealers to operate without the excessive license and high bond required at present and will submit the same for approval to the assembly. The features of the new bill were arrived at after consultation with mining operators who desire protection from trafficekers in bootleg high grade ore. On the other hand it is conceded that the prospector and the small store should enjoy the patronage of those who have a poke of "dust" to exchange for the necessaries of life. These men have been hard hit by the operation of the act which has been on the books for some years now.

SIERRA COUNTY MINING ON INCREASE COMING YEAR SEES BIG OPERATIONS

The year 1928 saw a considerable increase of activity in Sierra county mining, particularly in the Serra City secton where large capital has been bonding leading properties with a possible view to later consolidations on a big scale. Downieville has been the scene of considerable activity.

The bonding of the Bigelow, Primrose and Monarch properties in the Sierra City section were the oustanding features of the year. The Bigelow was taken under bond by E. L. Blanton, representing Southern California interests and active development work is under way. A rich pay shoot of ore was recently encountered on the No. 3 level which may develop into a strike of real proportions.

The Nugget recently carried an exclusive story of the bonding of the Monarch property owned by Jack Lee to interests headed by D. H. Dutton, who propose an elaborate program of development, including the installation of electric power and the driving of a long tunnel from the lower part of the property to get under the ore shoots previously worked at shallow depth. The present shaft is to be deepened several hundred feet to afford operations while the tunnel is being driven. A sixty stamp mill is contemplated for erection in the spring.

Work is proceeding on the Primrose property acquired by Seattle interests and indications are excellent for a real producer.

The hydraulic properties are getting ready to commence active operations as soon as sufficient water is available. The 1928 season was not as favorable owing to short water supply, but it is expected that the present winter will afford an abundant supply and make for large production. A new property will be operated by Rabe and Turner and C. E. Herron and associates will have hydraulicking under way on several properties.

R. S. Vandervoort, manager, reports that the Bradley Haley property above Sierra City will be operating again the coming season.

A contract has been let to drive the Brady tunnel ahead on the Erwin property to tap the gravel channel under Chaparral Hill which has shown good values in earlier operations.

The Bessler mine just above Downieville is showing good values and is being developed. It is proposed to extend the power line in from the Wisconsin mine to provide continuous power and enable more active operations. The property is under bond to Oakland interests.

The Standard mine was sold the past year by George H. Marshall and some prospecting is being done.

The Indian Hill hydraulic property has been taken over by D. W. Shanks and F. W. Camp and is being rehabilitated in preparation for spring operations.

A fine strike of high grade ore was made in the City of Six mine shortly before the property was closed down for the winter and this will be thoroughly opened up in the spring. A. E. Hodgkinson of Los Angeles is the owner and in charge of operations.

A new ten stamp mill was installed at the Brush Creek mine and active development of the ore shoot uncovered last year will be carried on. This is a promising property.

The Gray Eagle property east of Downieville was taken over under bond by the Yellow Tiger interests and extensive tests have been made to determine as to whether the ore which has hitherto been considered rebellious for standard milling practice can be profitably handled.

The old Lincoln claims which were located in 1862 are being reopened.

The Old Colony gravel property was bonded by R. E. Miesse who is preparing to commence operations the coming spring. Development work prosecuted up to the winter season indicated excellent gravel in sight in the channel, running as high as $8.00 a yard. Sluicing will be used to handle the gravel.

The Montrose Mining and Development Company operations on its properties on the South Fork of the North Yuba.

The Alleghany district saw some activity in several of the properties An excellent strike of specimen rock was made in the Yellow Jacket just before it was shut down on account of stortage of money for development purposes. It was proposed to operate this in conjunction with the El Dorado and it is to be hoped that the plans can be brought to successful fruition as these are two of the promising properties of the district.

The Sixteen to One has shown good production during the year, and one of the largest chuncks of nearly pure gold ever found was taken out dring the year. Its value was in excess of $26,000. This mine has been a steady producer for some years and with the excessive income tax removed would see far greater development work undertaken.

The uncovering of chemically pure gold was accomplished in the Dipper property owned by Mrs. E. H. DeWein. Assays of the ore showed but a faint trace of foreign element present.

The rebuilding of the highway between Downieville and Sierra City should do a great deal for the Sierra City mining district and enable the hauling in of supplies and equpment with greater facility.

GUSTAVE SCHMIDT HAS CROSSED THE BORDER

The sudden passing of Gustave Schmidt on Friday caused a wave of sorrow in this city where he had spent his entire life of 68 years. The funeral services were held from St. Canice's church yesterday afternoon, a solemn requiem mass being said for the repose of his soul.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt. Following his school days he engaged in the grocery business with his brother, ing into the cigar store business the late John J. Schmidt, later gowith his brother, E. W. Schmidt. Of late he had been working on the roads for the county. He was the oldest living fireman in the city and a member of Pennsylvania Engine Company.

Surviving are his brother, Edw. W. Schmidt, a niece, Miss Mary Schmidt and four nephews, Frank V. and John J. of Stockton and Louis and John R. Schmidt of Sacramento.

The family has the sincere sympathy of a large circle of sorrowing friends in their bereavement.

Rev. C. A. Snow and famly of Santa Cruz are visiting with his cousin, Dr. J. R. Ivey and wife.

C. K. TOWNSEND HAS CROSSED THE DIVIDE

The news of the sudden passing of C. K. Townsend at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Addington of Gold Run on December 12th will be received regretfully by the many friends of the family. Mr. Townsend had been taken here with an attack of the flu and he was taken to the Addington home to recuperate, but he failed to rally. The devoted wife rallied from her attack of the same malady, but is quite feeble and not expected to survive long.

Mr. Towsend was born in New Haven, Connecticut in 1848 and came to California in the late '70ties. He first settled in Oakland and then removed to Gold Run. He had lived for sixteen years past in Nevada City but for several winters past had been spending his winters at Gold Run. Three daughters, Mrs. Addington, Mrs. Ally Wall and Mrs. C. C. Fitch, all of Gold Run, and a son, Herbert Townsend, of San Jose, survive.

O. H. Dubois of Auburn was up to spend the holidays with his son and wife at the Murchie mine.

Stanley Bice of French Corral was in Nevada City Wednesday.

EMPIRE MINE IS FOR 78 YEARS BIG PRODUCER

The operation of the extensive mining properties in the Empire group is now segregated in a separate corporation known as the Empire Mining Company, the former name being the Empire Mines and Investment Company. There will be no change in the personnel according to Managing Director George W. Starr and the change is made to facilitate operations in connection with the mining interests of the company. The list of properties included in the transfer will be found on page two of this issue.

In an interview given the press, Mr. Starr stated that the company during the past year had not discovered as large ore reserves as had been hoped but that excellent ore had been located on the 7000 level and that extensive development work would be carried on this year in the older mines as well as the Sultana ground and deeper sinking was contemplated. He recalled that the Empire had been a continuous producer since it was first discovered in 1851, having never been fully shut down at any time. This is doubtless a record unequalled in the history of California mining.

The Empire interests saw lean times many times in the operation of the property, but new ore bodies occurring always brought things through in fine shape and it is this belief which prompted Mr. Starr to predict that mining operations in the district should not suffer any dimunition, with the fine strike made the past year in the Idaho Maryland and the operations at the Boundary property.

COZY CORNER CHAT

THE STARTING of a New Year finds a host of good resolutions made, many of which soon fall by the roadside but the idea of resolutions is a good one at that if it tends to sweep some of the cobwebs out of our systems and pick up some of the loose threads. The Nugget has been making some resolutions also and you will notice some changes in the makeup of the paper this issue which are intended to enhance its looks somewhat. At the rate the advertising is coming in we hope to keep an eight page issue more regularly. This will make it possible to augment our local news service a great deal in several departments. The high school section has been making a great hit since its inauguration last fall and it has been very popular with the student body The students under the careful tutelage of Miss Hoffmar have been producing a very creditable page. They prepare heir own copy, read the proof, write the heads and supervise the makeup, so that it has been an excellent training a no expense to the school either in money or in time lost from classes.

THE MINING NEWS which has been a leading feature of The Nugget since its very inception, has been bringing in quiries for sample copies from all over the United States and there is no doubt but that it has been focusing a great deal of attention on gold mining in Nevada and Sierra counties. It is noticeable that other papers about the state have been getting to publish more mining news which is a hopeful sign that plenty of publicity will be given the industry which made California possible as one of the great states of the Union. Gold mining looks to be coming back with a vengeance and the coming year will doubtless see a great revival of interest in this section of the state particularly where quartz mining first came into its own. The Mother Lode country is waking up once more into renewed activity particularly in Mariposa county which has been but a small producer for a number of years past. The splendid work done by the mining department of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce under the direction of R. L. Kimmel in sending out copy to the press on mining developments over the stae is bearing abundant fruit. Items from The Nugget reprinted in this bulletin are being widely copied.

THE RATE AT WHICH the subscription renewals have been pouring in since notices were sent out the past month has been very encouraging to the publishers as it is the only way they can judge as to whether their efforts are meeting with appoval There have not been two dozen subscriptions ordered stopped since the paper was started which is an excellent record for a new paper. The list is climbing fast all the time with no solicitation being done and we are on our way toward our second thousand. The advertising agencies are waking to he fact that there is a newspaper published at Nevaa City which covers a wide territory and is a good medium to use It is the hope of this paper that every business man in Nevada City during the coming year will find it worth his while to be an advertiser in these columns if but for a small space to show a community interest in the home own paper. Our readers can help greatly in bringing this about by remarking to the business men that are not represented in The Nugget that they ought to advertise in it The more advertisements, the larger the paper and the more news to read. It all goes hand in hand.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is going ahead nicely under the secretaryship of W. H. Griffith. He looks to be an excellent man on the job, well qualified for the work and furthermore he is a resident of the community. The floater type of secretary in boost work is largely fading out of the picture for when his bag of tricks and publicity is exhausted he usually moves to a new community. Nevada county wants no more shoestring promoters of any kind within her borders. In the end they do more harm than good. Mr. Griffth has been carrying on a work with the Lake Vera project that will accomplish a great deal in a tangible way for Nevada City in years to come. It was fortunate for the comm untiy that it was possible to enlist his services for our boost organization. The membership of the organization should be largely built up, its finances more in volume and its sphere of usefulness can thus be greatly widened. More power to it.

Abstract Judgment

State Compensation Insurance Fund vs. George W. Jones et al.

TWO NEW SUITS ARE STARTED AGAINST THE IRRIGATION DISTRICT

Two more lawsuits against the Nevada Irrigation District were filed the past week to add to the numerous other suits pending for various matters. The suits filed by Attorney T. L. Chamberlain of Auburn in behalf of a landowner of the irrigation district vitally affects the proposed new bond issue to clean up the debts incurred by the directors and the previous management amounting to some $600,000 and several hundred thousand more wanted to spend on the mountain works. The irrigation district and the directors were named as defendants in the action which is intended to prevent the issuance of the new bonds through a restraining order.

Herman Oest appears as the plaintiff in the action and states that he is a taxpayer within the claimed boundaries of the irrigation district in Placer county and brings the action on his behalf as such land owner and taxpayer and also for all other landowners within the district. He alleges that the bond mones were not expended as outlined in Reports 52, 56 and 77 issued by the engineer and that the present bond issue is to cover obligations incurred under previous contracts and to replace expenditures already made. He lists the Grass Valley office building as not being autorized in the bond expenditures. He states in his complaint that he asked to appear before the state bond certification commission in regard to the issuance of the new bonds and that the commission promised and agreed that no bonds would be certified until he had been given an opportunity to be heard and that he understands that $600,000 have been certified in violation of such alleged promise.

Martin Van Berg and T. B. Flint have filed an action in Superior Court to quiet title to 2000 inches of water in Canyon Creek used to operate the power plant at the Arctic mine. The papers filed by F. T. Nilon as attorney aver that plaintiffs are the owners of such water right and have been in possession of such for 18 years past. The irrigation district which is diverting the waters into Lake Spaulding from Canyon Creek and the Yuba watrshed claims an interest in the water adverse to the plaintiffs and the action is brought to quiet title to the water in question.

The Arctic mine has been closed down since the irrigation district commenced operating the Bowman Dam owing to lack of sufficient water in Canyon Creek to operate the power plant and numerous parleys are said to have developed nothing of moment.

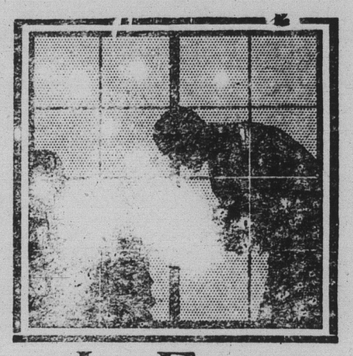
DR. CALDWELL'S THREE RULES

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are in their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation is a mild vegetable compound. It will not harm the most delicate system as it is not habit forming.

The Doctor never did approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put in their system. Use Syrup Pepsin for old and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, bad breath, no appetite, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds. Get a bottle today, at any drugstore and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open. For a free trial bottle, just write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois.



In Five MILLION HOMES TONIGHT

There are times when all a mother's love can't soothe a fretful baby. No way of telling just what's wrong, yet something must be done. Castoria time! A few drops, and Baby has dropped off to sleep. Yet this marvelous means of quieting a restless infant is utterly harmless. There is not one ingredient but what all doctors know and approve, and would let you give your baby every day in the week. In fact Castoria is a purely vegetable product. Gas pains, constipation, even diarrhea can be dispelled in this same manner. Castoria is older than you are, but physicians still say "nothing better for babies." An old-fashioned remedy if you count its years, but parents are old-fashioned who still raise babies without its aid! And at least five million modern mothers keep it handy day and night, for twenty-five million bottles were bought last year! Buy yours now; don't wait until you need it

One of the biggest surprises of the evening was the finding of the identity of the mysterious lady in pink who was awarded ladies second prize. It proved to be none other than Lloyd Penrose who designed the costume himself. His mother taking ladies first and his father a gentleman's first brought the Penrose family well to the front for the garnering of prizes.

One of the neat costumed couples were two ladies wearing, one a dress made out of The Morning Union and the other a dress made out of The Nugget. The dresses entailed a great deal of labor in their making.

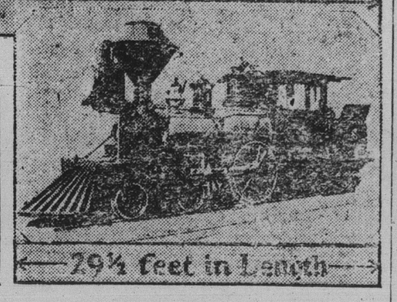
SIXTY-FIVE YEARS OF LOCOMOTIVE GROWTH



"My! What a big boy my great grandson grew up to be!" said the "C. P. Huntington," otherwise "Southern Pacific No. 1," when it came out of retirement to pose beside one of the Southern Pacific's new giants of the rail just placed in service. Grandpop weighs 39,000 pounds. Grandson tips the scales at 906,900 pounds. Quite a difference, but it represents 65 years of locomotive development on Southern Pacific Lines.

"LIKE father like son" may fit the human race but it won't work in railroad locomotive circles.

And when it comes to grandsons and great grandsons, blood relations in the "iron horse" family pass for perfect strangers.

More and more the likeness between the old and new is passing, until today it's a wise locomotive that recognizes its progeny and a wiser engine that knows its parents!

Which is introductory to announcement that the Southern Pacific Company has just placed in service ten of the largest and most powerful locomotives ever operated over its lines.

Although they are lineal descendants of the pioneer woodburner "C. P. Huntington," known as Southern Pacific No. 1, the new oil-burning mastodons of railroad motive power bear little resemblance to their great grandfather.

How times and appearances have changed since the first locomotive was shipped around the Horn in 1863 for service in California is best illustrated by the following comparison:

The Huntington (now used for historical exhibition purposes only), is 29½ feet in length, and weighs 39,000 pounds. It could haul four small cars up a grade of 26 feet to the mile—a surprising performance in its day!

The Southern Pacific's new giants of the rails are 120 feet long, 16 feet four inches high and each weighs, when loaded, 906,900 pounds. They have individual tractive power of 112,760 pounds.

Ten of the new locomotives, technically described as "single expansion articulated" engines, have been added to the company's motive power equipment on the 139-mile run over the Sierra Nevada Mountains between Roseville, California, and Sparks, Nevada.

To appreciate fully the size and power of the iron steeds just harnessed by Southern Pacific, it must be known that "articuated type" means two separate engines hinged together. So it is a case of two locomotives in one, but operated as a unit.

The new engines, unlike most locomotives, have the cab in front. This arrangement has not been utilized by any other railroad but has been previously employed on a number of Southern Pacific Mallet compounds. Its purpose is to keep the cab clear of smoke and gases while operating through tunnels and snowsheds and to give the enginemen a better view of the track ahead.

WATER ASSOCIATION IN NEED OF FUNDS

NORTH SAN JUAN, Jan. 5, (Special to The Nugget)—The finance committee of the San Juan Water Asociation is wrestling with the problem of raising money to meet the presing debts of the Aasociation incurred in the rebuilding of the North Bloomfield flume and making ditch repairs. There is $2707.23 owing on labor account, som of which is urgently needed. Owing to the fact that the irrigation district turned the water out of the ditch soon afer it was completed and the flume becoming filled with snow and ice means that it cannot be used before early summer. The lack of water so hampered the operations of the Rescue Eula and Yellow Tiger companies near Graniteville that it entailed a severe loss to them for the money they put in to help rebuild the flume. The Association has been trying to get a conference with the irrigation district officials to see what can be done on keeping a regular supply of water in the ditch at all times. The Ancho mine is said to have had but one day's use of the water and the at Gaston it was on for 18 days. Considering the large expense the Association was put to to put the ditch system in repair it has created a serious problem to face.

CURRENT OBSERVATIONS

(By MILDANCO)

How many peole of Nevada City really understand and appreciate the splendid and unselfish work the the Pocahontas Girls are doing?

After the regular dances at Redmen's Hall had failed to pay under former managements and the source of revenue to the Hall Association was cut off it was feared that the Association might not be able to make the final payments on the hall and that it might again be lost as a semi-publicly owned institution.

This brave group of girls volunteered to take up the burden of conducting dances in the hall and to devote the proceeds to the Hall Association to pay upon the promissory note held against the property How well their enthusiasm and well planned programs have been appreciated are well known to those who partonize the dances and their friends, but the general public may not know the long hours of labor that these girls have devoted to the work. May they succeed in raising the money to pay the debt hanging over the heads of the Hall Association, and it is to be hoped that when they have paid in full the large sum still due, that the Redmen's Hall Association will see fit to let the girls have the hall so that they can make a little money for themselves.

We can remember when the county courthouse was thought of by many people with rather a feeling of awe, perhaps assisted by the proximity of the county jail. At any rate old-time officials of the county at times seemed to consider that this feeling had to be justified on their part with solemn and courtly demeanor.

Itw as refreshing to note on the day before Christmas that the officials introduced the Christmas tree idea into the county building. The present set of county officials are as friendly a bunch as will be found in any institution and there is always a pleasant word of courtesy from them to all who have business in the courthouse, and the fact that they all enjoyed the Christmas tree demonstrates that in the county offices the spirit of peace on earth and good will toward men reigns supreme. And the generous sprinkling of earnest women and girls among the offices probably adds pleasantness as well as fairness to the official atmosphere.

On Christmas night we noticed a group of about twenty young people, boys and girls alike, singing Christmas carols on the streets of Nevada City. They would stroll along a ways and then stop and sing one of their offers and then pass along a block or two and favor another neighborhood.

It strikes us that this is a peach of an idea. The carolers were apparently of about high school age and these youngsters may well have set a fine perecedent for their successors in school to adopt and foster in coming years. We are glad to be able to say a good word and let the boys and girls know that their evidently sincere effort is appreciated.
